

South High Debate Team Wins 19 Awards in Meet

"We're from South High and couldn't be prouder," students were saying this week about the school orators.

The South High orators placed third in a 15-school competition held by the Southern California Debate League at North High recently.

Out of more than 30 entrants, 16 South High students were among the winners and carried off 19 awards.

John Brooks and Doug Forrester won medals for debate while certificates of superiority went to Virginia Snyder, Rickie Robbins, and Bill Doty for dramatic interpretation.

Humorous interpretation certificates were won by Frances Simmons and Raleigh Schear; poetry reading by Winkie Gilbert; and original oratory by John Brooks.

Certificates of excellence were awarded to David Phillips for oratorical interpreta-
